Cashmere Baby Blankets From the Pashmina Store: So Soft!

Cozy up to The Pashmina Store's new 100% pure pashmina cashmere wool baby blankets. The Texas-based online retailer is now selling this on-the-mark present. The cashmere baby blankets are a superb choice for a new baby gift (or maybe you should grab it for your own babe). You can get it for $59 (most cashmere blankets retail for around $200). So incredibly soft and comfortable, babies will enjoy cuddling up to this 3-ply cashmere blanket with the same color luxurious satin borders. And this blanket actually becomes softer every time your babe touches it! They come in seven stunning colors: pink, yellow, blue, light green, natural, lavender and emerald green.

What is pashmina? Not just the gorgeous oversized popular scarf, it is the traditional name for the finest cashmere wool. Besides the scarves, The Pashmina Store carries baby blankets and throws for your couch. The quality of these products is amazing, but the warmth and comfort is what you are going to remember. Ben loved his new blankie. He kept saying, "soft, soft" when he was holding it. Now he won't go to sleep without it! Crafted by hand in Nepal, these 36" by 36" blankets are also ideal for swaddling (which I am big fan of, but Ben is much too big for it now).
